

ARTEMIS DOMAINES
AND LES DOMAINES BARONS DE ROTHSCHILD LAFITE
ENTER INTO EXCLUSIVE NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE SALE OF WILLIAM FEVRE

Paris, 6 July 2023 - Artémis Domaines and Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite announce that they have entered into exclusive negotiations for the sale of Domaine William Fèvre.

After receiving and reviewing several offers, Artémis Domaines has entered into exclusive negotiations with Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite for the sale of William Fèvre.

Artémis Domaines selected Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite, a family-owned company that has been a symbol of excellence in French winemaking for over 150 years.

Domaine William Fèvre has grown over the years by selecting historic terroirs to become one of the major players in the Chablis vineyards, with 90 parcels representing 72 hectares, including 15.9 classified as Premier Cru and 15.2 as Grand Cru. This strength, combined with generations of producing great white wines and a strong commitment to sustainable development, convinced Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite to expand into this great Chablis terroirs and continue developing their winemaking heritage.

Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite is well-aligned with William Fèvre's family business tradition and will be committed to perpetuating the exceptional, nearly century-old legacy of the Fèvre and Henriot families.

This transaction remains subject to customary regulatory approvals.

About Artémis Domaines

Artémis Domaines is a group with unanimously recognised expertise in cultivating prestigious terroirs and producing exceptional wines with strict respect for the environment.

Artémis Domaines is jointly owned by the Pinault family and the Henriot-Larouzière family. The group owns Château Latour, 1er grand cru classé in Pauillac, Clos de Tart in Morey-Saint-Denis, Domaine Bouchard Père et Fils based in Beaune and Domaine d'Eugénie in Vosne-Romanée in Burgundy, the vineyards of Château Grillet in the Rhône Valley, Champagne Jacquesson, Domaine Eisele Vineyard in California's Napa Valley, and the Beaux-Frères vineyards in Oregon.

About Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite

Firmly rooted in the terroirs it cultivates and dedicated to achieving the perfect balance in winemaking, an art practiced for 150 years at Château Lafite Rothschild, the family of estates includes Château Duhart-Milon in Pauillac, Château L'Evangile in Pomerol, Château Paradis Casseuil in Entre-Deux Mers, as well as Château Rieussec in Sauternes and Domaine d'Aussières in the Corbières. Today, all the French vineyards of Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite are farmed organically with a strong commitment to sustainable development in every region. Beyond France, the vineyards extend into Chile's Colchagua Valley with Viña Los Vascos, China's Shandong region with Domaine de Long Dai, and Argentina's Mendoza region with Bodegas CARO.

ARTEMIS DOMAINES

Press contacts

Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite: Marie Medeville + 33 6 07 67 82 51 - mmedeville@lafite.com

Artémis Domaines : Image Sept - Laurence Heilbronn +33 6 89 87 61 37 - lheilbronn@image7.fr